Only Five Weeks to FoodProWest 2010: Arran Stephens Confirmed to Speak

Abbotsford, BC, April 30, 2010. With only five weeks to FoodPro West, that will take place on Friday, June 4th at the Grand Villa, Delta Burnaby, the BCFPA is pleased to announce that organic food visionary, Arran Stephens, President of Nature's Path Foods has been confirmed as a speaker.

Arran and his wife Ratana started Nature's Path Foods out of the back of their independent restaurant in the early 80s. They built the company into North America's first and largest organic breakfast food company.

FoodProWest—with theme this year of "Energy/Sustainability"—is your chance to learn from industry leaders, attend professional development sessions, network with peers and visit the exhibits. Professional development sessions will include Food Safety, Occupational Safety and more. The event will also feature the Industry Awards, as well as an expert panel of industry specialists.
